

THIS CULLERCOATS

2pm RNLI £6.00

Music: Alan Jones

Six working writers who live in Cullercoats were invited to contribute to this anthology, each responding in his or her own way to being a part of the village. The book's writers are Carol Clewlow, Kitty Fitzgerald, Harry Gallagher, Peter Mortimer, Pauline Plummer and Josephine Scott.

An intriguing mix of poetry, fiction and mythology. One of the region's most talented singer/song writers Alan Jones provides his own distinctive sounds. The book is launched at the festival and five authors will read a short extract. Special launch event book price: £5.00.

Alan Jones

Pauline Plummer

Josephine Scott

VOICES OF CONSCIENCE

4pm RNLI £7.00

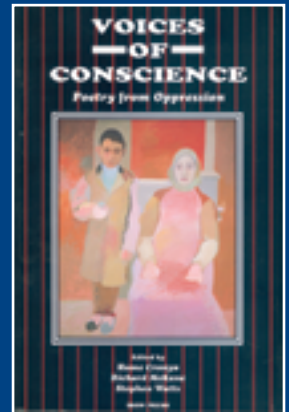

Poetry From Oppression

Colette Bryce, Kate Fox, W. N. Herbert & Sean O'Brien

Our biggest ever book; work from 150 renowned 20th century poets world-wide, whose writing saw them imprisoned, persecuted, or executed by the state. Translated from 40 languages, a major publication and possibly the only book to include the poetry of both Oscar Wilde and Ho Chi Minh. Plus the likes of Pablo Neruda, Nazim Hikmet and Bertolt Brecht.

Selected and read by four of the region's best known writers:

Colette Bryce, Kate Fox, W.N. Herbert & Sean O'Brien

Colette Bryce

Kate Fox

W N Herbert

Sean O'Brien